Help Resist the LGBTQ Community's Erasure from History

MAPPING HISTORY

An award-winning cultural heritage initiative, founded by historic preservation experts in 2015, that recognizes the LGBTQ community's often-untold contributions to centuries of NYC and American history.

Mapped places highlight where LGBTQ New Yorkers fought for their rights, created community, and shaped American culture.

Thanks for all you have done to transform the field, to document American history and for making NYC a more inclusive and vibrant place.

■ Amy Freitag, President,
New York Community Trust

FOSTERING PRIDE

LGBTQ people deserve to know they have a long and vibrant history. Through the power of place, our pioneering work connects current and future generations to their LGBTQ forebears.

In championing LGBTQ historic sites in NYC, we anchor countless individuals — young and old — to a shared past, instilling a sense of recognition, belonging, and understanding.
